Surrounded by nature and enjoying breathtaking views of the nearby mountains, this is a property where peace, privacy and potential come together.

For over 55 years, this home has been lovingly owned by the same local Spanish family. Throughout those years, it has been the setting for generations of treasured memories, laughter and family celebrations. The family have also dedicated their lives to cultivating the surrounding land, running their own business selling fresh oranges and lemons, making this finca a true part of the area's rich agricultural heritage.

While the house itself now requires complete renovation, it offers an incredible blank canvas for someone with vision to restore it into a stunning countryside retreat full of character and charm.

The generous plot is one of the property's greatest features, boasting an abundance of mature fruit trees including orange, lemon, fig, olive, pomegranate and grape vines, along with many more varieties that create a truly authentic Mediterranean setting. Imagine picking fresh fruit straight from your own garden while enjoying the tranquillity of the surrounding countryside.

Beyond the gardens, the picturesque mountain backdrop provides endless opportunities to enjoy the outdoors, with an extensive network of scenic walking, hiking and cycling routes just moments away. Despite its peaceful rural setting, the historic city of Orihuela is only a short drive away, offering a wonderful blend of traditional Spanish culture, excellent restaurants, local markets, schools, healthcare facilities and all everyday amenities.
