A fantastic opportunity to purchase this well-positioned 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom ground floor apartment located within the popular Lomas del Golf community.

The property benefits from both front and rear gardens, providing plenty of private outdoor space to relax, dine and enjoy the Costa Blanca climate.

Entering through the front garden, an enclosed front terrace provides additional usable living space before leading into the comfortable lounge and kitchen area.

The apartment offers two well-proportioned bedrooms together with a family-sized bathroom. The master bedroom is particularly appealing, benefiting from direct access to the rear garden, which leads out towards the attractive communal swimming pool area.

With private outdoor space to both the front and rear, convenient access to the communal pool and an excellent location within walking distance of a wide selection of local amenities, this property would make an ideal permanent residence, holiday home or investment opportunity.
