This stunning bungalow is set within a secure, gated complex, between two communal pools and within walking distance to the local facilities of Pueblo Bravo, and a short drive to Ciudad Quesada and the beaches of Guardamar del Segura.

On entering the complex, you can park directly on the property via a fully electric entrance gate and benefit from the multiple shaded seating areas the property has to enjoy. The bungalow is accessed via one such covered terrace with a retractable awning, where you can enjoy the established garden area and greenery. On entering the light and airy lounge, it is clear to see the benefits of open plan living where you can soak in the tastefully decorated living area, boasting infra-red heating panels, ducted air conditioning, high ceilings and a fully equipped, modern kitchen, where great effort has been taken to ensure the space is fully utilised and functional.

The two double bedrooms, one of which is ensuite, are finished to the same high standard, making for a comfortable and homely space with full-length built-in wardrobes and additional storage. The family shower room can be found adjacent to the second bedroom.

The property has so much to offer, but perhaps one of its biggest attributes is the large, multi-space solarium where you can soak up the winter sun, enjoy a barbecue, or benefit from the shade of the retractable awnings and summer breeze. A fantastic space, ideal for socialising, relaxing, sun bathing or as a quiet retreat any time of the year.

The bungalow is only a short distance from the two communal pools offered by the complex. A must view property, which will not be available for long!
